INTERNATIONAL
BUSINESS SCHOOL
—AMERICAS—

1 - Presentation

Markets internationalization is no longer a trend and became a fact. Executives from all over the world have faced the need to increase their management knowledge, improve their business English skills and acquire international experiences. The priority is to develop a global view, fundamental skill to lead managerial actions across boundaries.

International Business School Americas is a school focused on coordinating and promoting international educational programs for students, young professionals and executives. Operating since 2003, every year 1,500 students from all over the world enroll and successfully participate in our programs abroad.

The University of La Verne (ULV) and the California State University, Northridge (CSUN) are offering students of higher education (undergraduate and graduate) the opportunity to attend intensive programs in Administration, Communication and Business English in the United States.

Students are supported by an extensive scholarship program, covering 70% of the expenses of the chosen course. We welcome you to apply and participate in our programs.

Prof. Ricardo Pitelli de Britto

Doctor in Management from FEA/USP
Representative of California State University, Northridge and the University of La Verne
Dean of the International Business School Americas

2 - Course Description

The courses are aimed at undergraduates in Business Administration or students in other fields with an interest in understanding the foundations of international business. (Please see the list of courses on page 2)

The courses are held in English. This, together with extra activities, allows the student to get a profound knowledge of American affairs.

We also offer a course in Business English, at no additional cost. The goal is to develop management training skills parallel with learning the English language. For students with limited knowledge in English, there is the option to attend the program "Business English - First Lessons".

The courses take place in January, July and September, over three weeks, and are full-time studies, Monday to Thursday, from 9 am to 4 pm. To ensure close contact between the professor and students, classes are composed of groups from 15 to 30 participants.

Check out the upcoming dates for

3 - Program Organization

Visits to local companies, organizations and other events

The group will visit local companies and have lectures with Executives, having the opportunity of interacting with business reality of the United States. Visits to organizations and events will be suggested to the students during their spare time.

The Campus site of CSUN in California

International education with focus on the special characteristics and needs of North American business

The Campus site of ULV in California

The University of La Verne is one of the most traditional and respected American universities. Founded in 1891, ULV is a private nonprofit institution, with its main campus in the city of La Verne, California, 40 minutes from Los Angeles.

The California State University is a public institution, founded in 1857 and currently the fourth largest university in the United States. Northridge campus, on which the course is taught, is located 20 minutes from Hollywood.

They offer undergraduate, masters and doctoral degrees in various fields of knowledge, being composed of doctors with extensive professional and academic experience. Both institutions are connected to foundations that support international students.

Under the guidance of Professor Dr. Ricardo Pitelli de Britto, the program will provide assistance to students in their preparation and travel to the course, in order to make the most of it. Our goal is to offer international education focusing the reality of young professionals.
